Now that the strike is over a pretty healthy wedding epidemic has hit Lexington.

The fight among New York Republicans shows that T. R. has pretty fair endurance.

To prove its independence the Kansas City Star is now letting out a few pianissimo boots for Missouri Democracy.

These bear stories from the big football camps remind us that other people than politicians sometimes resort to untruths.

In Prosser, Washington, the other day an automobile killed its owner, but the same day four cars got pedestrians. So the percentage remains practically unruffled.

Nobody can keep Missouri from going Democratic this year and the Lafayette County situation looks as good as the state status.

The Lexington schools all opened in fine shape and the miners are going full blast. Local business is therefore sitting up and taking notice.

It remained for the college girls to show us the real hobbie skirt. We are not so strongly impressed with the skirts, but the girls continue to arrest our attention.

We are not so much concerned about the differences between the Roper method and the Hollenbeck method. If the new way gets the results on Thanksgiving we shall be abundantly satisfied.

New boys at the academy are not allowed to cast their longing eyes toward a girl before Christmas; but, thank goodness, there is no such restriction at the girls' colleges.

James H. Tawney, an old war horse of the standpat persuasion, was defeated Tuesday by a progressive. Mr. Tawney has served eighteen years in Congress and was chairman of the appropriations committee.

It will be remembered that President Taft in his Winona speech championed Tawney because of his attitude on the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill and said that he was "glad to speak in behalf of what he did, not in defense of it, but in support of it." That was on September 17, 1909. Mr. Taft is not so sure of his mind now.

Peruna Tablets Tested.
What are the Peruna Tablets good for? Has anybody used them enough to know what they will do? Read the following letter and see. If you have any doubts as to the genuineness of the letter, write to Mrs. Lohr, enclose a stamp for reply, and see whether her testimony is genuine or not:
Livonia, Mich., June 16, 1908.
The Peruna Drug Co.
In regard to the Peruna Tablets, I have used about ten boxes in all.
While I was in Chicago my oldest daughter was bothered with a cough all the time. She has had it for four years. Sometimes it would go away, and in the winter time it was so bad that the doctors and professors said that she had consumption, and the only way to give her any relief was to perform an operation.
I spend so much money for different medicines, and for doctors also. Nothing seemed to help her.
So I saw the Peruna Tablets advertised in the paper, and I got a box and tried them. She could get some sleep by taking them. She would be up all night and cough. So in all she took six boxes, and never was bothered any more.
I will leave this for any one to inquire at our old residence, where we lived in Chicago. All our neighbors would say that she could not live with such a cough. You don't know how thankful I am. She is eighteen years old.
My oldest son also was bothered with his stomach, throwing up, and his bowels so loose all the time. He was all run down for four months. I also doctored with him. One would say this and the other something else. I started in to give him the Tablets, and now he is all right and healthy looking. He took four boxes. That is all he wants to take whenever anything ails him.
So I praise your Tablets just as high as I have your Peruna. That is all the medicine that ever comes in my house. Whenever I travel I take some with me. I have had three of my children sick with scarlet fever two months ago, and that is all I used, was the Peruna and the Tablets. I did not lose any of them.
If there is any more information you want, why just let me know and I will be glad to help you. Yours truly, Mrs. Lohr, Livonia, Mich.

The Kansas City Blues, it seems, will finish according to custom, in the second division; but this year they have tried and so have our sympathy rather than contempt.

Every candidate on the Democratic ticket in Lafayette County is worthy of the office he seeks.
Every Democrat in Lafayette County should support the ticket with every honorable means at his command.

And now Mr. Bryan himself has bolted the Democratic ticket in Nebraska and, as usual, Mr.
Bryan is right. It is perfectly proper to vote for principles and not for men; but men very often are the embodiment of principles.
When a man is making anti-prohibition his platform, though he be the nominee of a Democratic convention, it is not necessary for Democrats to become party traitors to refuse to support him.

This is the eve of a great Democratic victory. The results in Maine are but indications of the aroused public sentiment. The opportunity is at hand for Democracy to bring the best that she has to the end that her hour of victory may be made the stepping stone to future successes. Such men as David R. Francis will be needed in national councils when the big problems of national government are to be considered. By his public record he has shown his fitness for these things. He has been tried in places of heavy responsibility and acquitted himself with honor.

There are so many who would represent the common people.
We have in mind several who claimed the little country school their inspiration and who were very much surprised at being taken at their true worth and defeated at the poles. The graduate of only the little country school must necessarily at this day and age learn that his capabilities are limited, and that the common people are no longer to be humbugged into voting for a man who has no other qualifications. A successful man, that is, a man successful in the management of his own affairs, can claim the right to represent the people. The common people are not looking for a loud mouth champion. Their ambition is to have one who has won a place in this big throbbing world of business to voice their sentiments and protect their rights.

Claud Turman Dead.
Died on Monday evening, September 19, 1910, at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Turman, Claud aged about 32 years. He was the eldest child of Mr. and Mrs. Turman and had been twice married, his first wife having died four years ago leaving one little son. His last marriage occurred on the 18th day of August to Miss Gertrude At-keison of Durant, Oklahoma, who with his parents, his little son, 3 sisters and 3 brothers survive him. He was only sick two week's with that dreadful disease typhoid fever. He was a kind hearted, industrious young man, who had many friends here where he grew to manhood and at other places where he had made his home. His family and young wife have the sincere sympathy of all their friends in their sad bereavement.
